To Whom It May Concern

Reference For Rolls Right Industries

Rolls Right has provided local transportation services for [REDACTED] and its predecessor company, [REDACTED] for close to 20 years. Currently, the company utilizes all facets of Rolls Rights services from letter and package delivery through to logistics support of more than 200 full trailer and container loads per year..

The service provided by Rolls Right has been consistent and supportive. They do their best to comply with all requests and to provide timely service at very competitive prices. I am very happy with the professionalism of the various dispatchers and their willingness to get the job done .

Equipment is clean and well maintained. Drivers are courteous and helpful. This is an important feature.

I am happy to recommend Rolls Right to any customer regardless of size. They can expect to be well served.
